NOMINATION FORM
FOR ROYAL SOCIETY OF NSW
JAMES COOK MEDAL

The Royal Society of NSW James Cook Medal is awarded each year for the most meritorious lifetime contributions to knowledge and society mostly in Australia and its territories, made by an individual and conducted mainly in New South Wales.

The James Cook Medal was established by Council in 1943 following a donation from Henry Ferdinand Halloran. Halloran, who joined the Society in 1892 as a 23-year-old, was a surveyor, engineer, and town planner and an enthusiastic supporter of research, and funded both this and the Edgeworth David Medal for young scientists. The James Cook Medal has been awarded periodically since 1947 and in 2023, Council determined to award it annually.

Nominations open on 1 July each year and close on 30 September. Awardees are announced by the end of that calendar year with formal presentations of their Awards in the following year. All nominations require a nominator and a seconder who need not be Members of the Society. Recipients may be resident in Australia or elsewhere. All Royal Society of New South Wales awards are assessed relative to opportunity

Each nomination must comply with the conditions of award and will consist of a completed nomination form together with supporting documentation as specified on the form.

To submit a Nomination, please complete and return this form, together with the required curriculum vitae and letters of nomination and support, to awards-nominations@royalsoc.org.au by 30 September of the year of nomination.
