1. Introduction

1.1 Background

The Royal Society of NSW (the Society, RSNSW) traces its origins to the Philosophical Society of Australasia, which was established on 27 June 1821. The Society received Royal Assent in 1866 and was incorporated by an Act of the NSW Parliament in 1881.

Today, the Society is an inclusive learned institution that aims to enrich lives through knowledge and inquiry. It encompasses a diverse group of people who are dedicated to ideas that matter and contributing to a just, secure, and sustainable society by:

- Mobilising the multidisciplinary expertise of Society members
- Providing authentic and authoritative information
- Addressing national and global challenges
- Recognising and promoting excellence.

1.2 Organisational Structure

The Council is responsible for delivering the initiatives of the 2021-23 Strategic Plan.

The organisational structure of the Society has been conceived as a collection of programs that is designed and implemented by Council and its Committees. The Committees will undertake the detailed work of the Society, providing reports and advice to Council on the present and future conduct of the programs.

This document sets out the roles and responsibilities of the RSNSW Events Committee, in accordance with the Society's Rules, Values, Strategic Plan, Policies, Programs, and Council Handbook.

2. Role and Responsibilities

The purpose of this Committee is to lead the Events Program of the Society on behalf of Council. The Events Program is designed to be informative and interesting to a broad audience, providing the Society's members and the public with authentic and authoritative information and, as appropriate, fostering collegial and transdisciplinary debate on global, national and NSW challenges.

2.1 Program

The Committee will undertake the following activities:

- 2.1.5 Promote and publicise events through the Society's website, social media channels and via email (through the Society's service provider).
- 2.1.6 Actively seek feedback after events, address issues identified and recommend to Council amendments to the Events Program, as appropriate.
- 2.1.7 Maintain a record of attendance for all Society Events and undertake analysis to determine the levels of engagement of the Society membership.

2.2 Policies and Guidelines

These documents will be made available to the Committee by the Secretary of the Society.
