

1331st ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING
Wednesday 7 May 2025 at 6:00pm

Via Zoom webinar

The 1331st Ordinary General Meeting of the Royal Society of NSW will take place at 6:00 pm on Wednesday 7 May 2025 via Zoom webinar, followed by an open lecture.

AGENDA

- 1. WELCOME AND APOLOGIES – President, Em Prof Christina Slade FRSN.
- 2. MINUTES
Minutes of the 1330th Ordinary General Meeting will be reviewed.
- 3. CONFIRMATION OF NAMES OF CANDIDATES FOR FELLOWSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP
On the recommendation of the Fellows and Members Assessment Committee, the Council agreed by flying minute to propose the following candidates for admission as Fellows and Members.

FELLOWSHIP

Professor Brian Falzon

Laudation – Brian Falzon has made a substantial contribution to higher education and is internationally recognised for his work on advanced composite materials and aerospace structures.

Professor Nicholas Fisher

Laudation – Nicholas Fisher has made a substantial contribution to the field of statistical methods, notably new approaches to the analysis of multivariate geochemical data.

Professor Chris Dixon

Laudation – Chris Dixon has made a significant contribution to higher education and American history.

Steven Patterson

Laudation – Steven Patterson has made a substantial contribution to the arts through his work on the development of ethical and sustainable artists' materials.

Professor Susan Rowland

Laudation – Susan Rowland has made a substantial contribution to higher education and has an international reputation in science education.

Dr Keith Shortridge

Laudation – Keith Shortridge has made a significant contribution to astronomy, notably in the area of astronomical software.

Professor Fariba Dehghani

Laudation – Fariba Dehghani has an international reputation in bioengineering for her pioneering work on medical devices, diagnostics and food technology.

Professor Omid Kavehei

Laudation – Omid Kavehei has made a significant contribution to microsystems design, notably around their application to medical implants, computing and defence.

Professor Jakelin Troy

Laudation – Jakelin Troy has made a substantial international contribution to the recognition of Indigenous languages in education systems.

Richard Travers

Laudation – Richard Travers has made a substantial contribution to Australian history and the law.

Professor Jean Yee Hwa Yang

Laudation – Jean Yee Hwa Yang has an international reputation in the field of statistical bioinformatics.

Professor Yansong Shen

Laudation – Yansong Shen has made a significant contribution to engineering notably in multiphase flow modelling and simulation, and process metallurgy.

Professor Margot Kearns

Laudation – Margot Kearns has made a significant contribution to higher education notably in the fields of nursing and molecular biology.

Professor Hazel Smith

Laudation – Hazel Smith has made a substantial contribution to literature as an academic and poet.

Professor Roger Dean

Laudation – Roger Dean has made a substantial contribution to higher education and music.

Professor Simon Haines

Laudation – Simon Haines has made a substantial contribution to higher education and the humanities.

Dr Susan Rothwell

Laudation – Susan Rothwell has made a significant contribution to architecture and the arts.

MEMBERSHIP

- Professor Kim Usher
- Professor Mary-Louise (Lou) Conway
- Luke Hallett
- Professor Michael Meylan
- Associate Professor Gal Winter
- Dr Kate Croaker
- Denis Smith
- Jodie Haigh
- Dr James Bond
- Ashley Overhill

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

- Harrison Barrett

4. PRESENTATION OF FELLOWSHIP AND MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

The President will present certificates to new Fellows whose nominations were tabled at the previous OGM or who were unable to attend previously and have notified the Secretariat of their attendance.

5. REPORT FROM COUNCIL AND COMMITTEES OF COUNCIL

The President will update membership on the key activities underway for 2024.

6. OPEN LECTURE

“Rethinking Mobility in a Changing Climate”

Scientia Professor Jane McAdam AO FASSA FAAL

Faculty of Law & Justice
UNSW Sydney

Every second, someone is displaced by a disaster. Each year, many more people are displaced internally by disasters than by conflict – the vast majority in the Asia-Pacific region. Climate change will amplify the problem as worsening cyclones, floods, bushfires, droughts and food insecurity force millions from their homes, potentially rendering some areas permanently unsafe. Most people will move within their own countries, including through evacuations, but some may be displaced across borders. Some may not be able to move at all; yet others may be displaced multiple times. When it comes to legal and policy responses to climate mobility, there is no one-size-fits-all approach. While the challenges of addressing climate change and disasters are immense, much can be done to alleviate displacement and its human costs – if we act now. This address will examine how law and policy is responding to the challenge of climate mobility at a time when every region of the world is being impacted by more frequent and intense disasters. What do affected communities want? How could greater preparedness lead to greater protection? How can migration itself be a form of adaptation to climate change?

About the speaker

Professor Jane McAdam AO is Scientia Professor of Law, Australian Research Council Laureate Fellow and the Founding Director of the Kaldor Centre for International Refugee Law at UNSW Sydney, where she leads the Evacuations Research Hub. She is a Fellow of the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia and the Australian Academy of Law, and an Honorary Associate of Oxford's Refugee Studies Centre. Professor McAdam publishes widely on international refugee law and forced migration, with a particular focus on evacuations and mobility in the context of climate change and disasters. Her legal analysis has been adopted by courts, governments and UN bodies, and her work has been highly influential in the development of international, regional and national policy frameworks. Professor McAdam serves on multiple international committees and was joint Editor-in-Chief of the International Journal of Refugee Law (2014–24). In 2021, she was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) 'for distinguished service to international refugee law, particularly to climate change and the displacement of people'. She won the Australian Human Rights Commission's Law Award in 2022 and was the inaugural winner.

7. VOTE OF THANKS

8. CLOSE

Em Prof Trevor Brown FRSN
Secretary