FOR ROYAL SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES MEDAL

The Royal Society of New South Wales Medal recognises an individual who has made meritorious contributions to the advancement of knowledge in any field and also to the Society's administration, organisation, and endeavours.

The Royal Society of NSW Medal was first awarded in 1884, revived in 1943, and has been awarded periodically thereafter. Council may award the Medal in any year at its discretion

Nominations open on 1 July each year and close on 30 September. A Medallist is announced by the end of that calendar year with formal presentation of the Awards in the following year. All nominations for the Royal Society of NSW Medal require a nominator and a seconder who must be Members or Fellows of the Society. Recipients may be resident in Australia or elsewhere. Awards are assessed relative to opportunity.

Each nomination must comply with the conditions of award and will consist of a completed nomination form together with supporting documentation as specified on the form.

To submit a Nomination, please add a 100 word summary, the required curriculum vitae, and two letters of nomination and support (2 pages max). Please combine the components into a single PDF and email to awards-nominations@royalsoc.org.au by 30 September of the year of nomination.
